8:30 a.m. – 3 p.m. at A-TEC Ambulance, Elgin, Illinois

Join us on September 13 for the annual SkillsUSA Illinois Advisor Development Conference, where you will be immersed in a day of professional growth and networking designed to empower you as a SkillsUSA advisor. The conference will kick off with a welcome breakfast, followed by a series of breakout sessions covering crucial topics such as creating a SkillsUSA culture, innovative chapter management, the importance of local officer programs, and effective industry engagement. Additionally, attendees will gain insights into fostering administrative support, revitalizing officer programs, and establishing buy-in from fellow educators. The event also includes the State of the Association Lunch, where you will hear about the current status, strategic direction, and future plans of SkillsUSA Illinois.

Concluding the conference, you'll engage in sessions focused on Work-based Learning programs, exploring best practices and innovative strategies for integrating these initiatives into the classroom. The day will wrap up with programming updates and closing remarks, providing a platform for interactive discussions and the sharing of best practices. This conference is your opportunity to deepen your understanding of SkillsUSA's vision and mission, and to leave equipped with actionable insights and strategies to enhance your local chapters and support your students.
